ANOTHER SUCCESS FOR COMEDY SHOW

"All On Account of a Count" at the Orpheum last night was another success for the Manhattan players, who in their short stay here have reason to be proud of the impression they have created among Bisbee playgoers.
Tommy La More and Arthur Harrison as usual formed a capital team.
A refreshing fact about the comedy of those two is that it is quite free from the vulgarity and coarseness which mars the effectiveness of many otherwise clever comedians.

Miss Stella Mayfield created a most favorable impression, the more so as on this occasion her charming appearance was without disguise, and her singing of the "telephone song" was most cordially received. Her vervacity is proven by the fact that in the four plays in which she has taken part she has assumed four totally different types of character, and each with conspicuous success.

Miss Ruth Leslie and Wm. True-hart, whose repertoire appears to be as varied as it is excellent, made a remarkably clever display in the "Vernon Castle One-Step." Their dancing was marked by perfect ease and grace of movement, and the closest critic of their act would find it impossible to detect a flaw or false step.

Miss Floe Collins has never been heard to better advantage than in her song "The Dainty Damsel," with which she charmed her hearers last night, responding to an encore with the plaintive little ballad "Little Gray Mother," which evoked as much applause as the first number. When it is remembered that Miss Collins is but twenty years old it is easy to forecast for her in a few years the highest measure of success in her profession.

It would seem that when the work of a chorus is effective they should be as well entitled to mention as the principals, and the Manhattan Girls' Chorus, consisting of Misses Blondy Wood, Hazel Elliott, Dot Bernard, Tiny Bennett, Mildred Lee, and Floe Collins are certainly deserving a recognition or their dery capable work.
It has been noted that they are as all o nerve and spirit at the conclusion of the performance as in the opening number.

Tonight the company will play the "Thoroughbred," in the course of which Miss Ruth Leslie will perform the famous "Hula-Hula" dance, assisted by three members of the chorus.

While the Musical Director has one of the most difficult parts of the bill, he rarely receives adequate notice for his share in the success of a piece and in the event of its failure the entire blame is usually put on his shoulders.
Paradoxical as it may seem, Mr. Jack Adams' accompaniments are so uniformly good that they pass almost unnoticed except by the most careful observer, and it is evident that his work is mainly instrumental in producing the smoothness with which the Manhattan Company's plays run from the opening to the drop of the curtain.

SOCIAL MONDAY EVENING.

Brotherhood, on Monday evening will daughter are doing fine.

INFLUENCE FROM WASHINGTON HARD ON SHORT MARKET

Stocks Were Again Under Pressure Though a Few of the Specialties Respond to Manipulation and Soar.

NEW YORK, March 4.—Although there were no developments during the short session, stocks were again under uncertain influences, resulting from the situation in Washington.
Trading was light to the point of utter apathy. In the first half of the session, a few specialties, chiefly Petroleum, tobacco and coppers, were manipulated to higher levels.
Later the market began to drop in all quarters. Total sales of stocks were 165,000 shares.

Bonds were steady, the total sales par value being $1,250,000.

(By L. J. Overlock) BOSTON, March 4.—It looks as if the situation in Washington was clearing up. There seems to be a better feeling prevailing in New York, business continues at high water mark.
Foreign demand is large even if shipments are small because of lack of transportation facilities. However, security prices may fluctuate as the stocks are worth more than they were six months ago. The stock market has acted well considering the disquieting rumors, with which it has had to contend, undoubtedly liquidation of weak accounts have been thorough and a heavy short interest created. All that is needed is favorable news to start a change in speculation sentiment. In the meantime there is a steady investment absorption on all recessions. It is a war market and dominated by war news.

HARVEY M. SHIELDS FORMERLY OF CITY DIES IN TEXAS CITY

Pastor of Episcopal Church Here and Later of Dawson, N. M. Passes. Remembered Here by Many.

Word received in the district yesterday morning announcing the death of the Rev. Harvey M. Shields, pastor of the Episcopal Church in Dawson, New Mexico, and a resident of Bisbee in the same capacity for about seven years, brought sadness to a great number of his friends. His death occurred in Mineral Wells, Texas, where, with Mrs. Shields, his daughter and youngest son, he had gone in search of better health. His oldest son was in Bisbee at the time of his death.

Harvey Shields was known in Bisbee as a man of the people. He was not held aloof, as are most ministers, and in that quality lay his charm and his grasp of the people's affections. He came to Bisbee in 1900 and left here in 1907 for the post in the New Mexico town. He has been located there since that time. As testimony of the manner in which he was esteemed at Dawson and in Colfax county, New Mexico, it might be said that he was a member of the board of county commissioners there for several terms.
The last time the place was forced upon him by his many friends.

The deceased was practically a product of New Mexico, his father coming to that state in about 1879. The father died at Jemez Hot Springs last fall.
While in Bisbee Mr. Shields was an active member of the Elks, of which he enjoyed a life tenure, of the En-gles and of several other fraternal organizations.
